XLRI TO ORGANISE 2nd 'DR. VERGHESE KURIEN MEMORIAL ORATION ON SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT'

21st August, 2015: XLRI- Xavier School of Management is all set to organize the 2nd "Dr Vergheese Kurien Memorial Oration on Sustainable Development" in memory of the Founder of AMUL Dr. Vergheese Kurien, otherwise known as "the Milkman of India" on 19th September, 2015 at XLRI Campus, Jamshedpur. The oration is to be delivered by Mr. Bunker Roy, Founder and Director, Barefoot College, Tilonia, Ajmer.

Mr. Bunker Roy is an eminent social activist and educator, recognized as one of the 50 leading environmentalists by The Guardian in 2008, and as one of the 100 most influential people in the world by Time magazine in 2010. An alumnus of Doon School and St Stephens College Delhi, Mr. Roy has been actively working for the rural people. He established Social Work and Research Centre, popularly known as the Barefoot College, in Tilonia village, Ajmer (Rajasthan), with a mission to empower rural poor through training for building self-sustained communities. The College, which is fully solar electrified, is built and managed by the poor, and provides skills for sustainable living, including as solar engineers, teachers, midwives, weavers, architects and doctors to rural communities. Over the years, the Barefoot College has trained more than 3 million people, and its program/ approach has been implemented in over 30 of the Least Developed Countries.

Mr. Bunker Roy would deliver the oration on the topic "The 21st Century Gandhian Model to Sustainability".

Fr. E Abraham, S. J. Director of XLRI commented, "Dr. Vergheese Kurien was a thinker, social sector revolutionary, who ideated the world's biggest agricultural development programme turning India into one of the largest milk producers in the world. The oration in his memory has been instituted with the aim to commemorate his legacy through propagating and disseminating the idea of an empowered, equitable and sustainable society. We are extremely happy to have Mr. Bunker Roy delivering the 2nd "Dr Vergheese Kurien Memorial Oration". Mr. Roy, an eminent social innovator has gained numerous recognitions for his contribution for rural Indians, having spent five years working as an unskilled labour digging wells in the villages during the Bihar famine."

"Dr. Vergheese Kurien Memorial Oration on Sustainable Development is our humble initiative to pay tribute to the great visionary," said Prof. Madhukar Shukla, Chairperson of XLRI's Fr Arrupe Center for Ecology & Sustainability. "With this annual oration, we aim to inspire and inculcate values of entrepreneurial spirit in budding business leaders and social entrepreneurs", he added.

Awaken your inner hero: XLRI organizes Jamshedpur Run

16th August 2015: The seventh annual Jamshedpur Run, organized by XLRI was flagged off by internationally acclaimed boxer, Ms. Aruna Mishra, on a bright Sunday morning, which saw active participation of 500 people. The mini marathon was a 5 km stretch that started from XLRI's football ground and covered some of the most picturesque roads of Jamshedpur.

Jamshedpur Run, organized as one of the foremost events of Valhalla, the annual sports and cultural festival of XLRI, aims to bring together people from all walks of life in celebration of the hero within us all.

The event organized by CII-Young Indians (CII-Yi) student chapter at XLRI received an overwhelming response. Participants included school and college students, faculty members, industry experts, dignitaries and citizens of the city who hit the ground at 6:00 a.m. The medical arrangements for the event were taken care of by the volunteers of XLRI with medical stations installed along the route.

The winners were felicitated at the prize distribution ceremony by Fr. James Santhanam, Associate Dean (Student Affairs), XLRI and Ms. Aruna Mishra. Ms. Mishra has been an inspirational figure who symbolizes the realization of the innate potential that exists within each one of us. The participants took home the joy of being a part of a challenging experience, along with goodies and certificates.

The mini-marathon event ended on a high note with participants expressing a strong desire to participate in the event next year.

About XLRI: XLRI is the country's premier management institute and has been consistently ranked among the top B-schools, alongside the IIMs. The college is one of the most preferred destinations for those wishing to learn the ropes of management.

About CII Yi XLRI: XLRI Jamshedpur in collaboration with Yi (Young Indians) established the first Yi Net at XLRI Jamshedpur through a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) in April 2008. The Yi Net at XLRI is an initiative to empower the students to work towards the development of education, employability, environment, youth affairs and health sectors.
